Debtor.)

MOTION TO WITHDRAW AS COUNSEL

Comes now Matthew R. Murphy, counsel of record for America Cares Trust (ACT) d/b/a CareNation, and respectfully requests to be allowed to withdraw as counsel for this interested party in this case. In support of this Motion, Matthew R. Murphy (hereinafter "Movant") would state that he has performed all services pursuant to the scope of his engagement in this case, and Movant has notified this interested party of his disengagement and termination of legal services in this matter. Accordingly, pursuant to LBR 2091-1(b), Movant gives notice of its withdrawal by the filing of this motion and service pursuant to the Court's CM/ECF system and U.S. Mail. Movant would ask the Court to allow him to withdraw from representation of this interested party, and further requests the Court to release Movant from the responsibility of costs, bonds, and proceedings in connection with this case. Pursuant to LBR 2091-1(b), a copy of the Proposed Order allowing Movant to withdraw as counsel for record for America Cares Trust (ACT) d/b/a CareNation is being attached as an exhibit to this Motion.

Respectfully submitted,

By: /s/ Matthew R. Murphy
